  - Chaos Storm

Strategy

---

- Just waiting briefly for an opening is a good strategy, and even the over-cautious can wait for her to run out of charges of her various spells before attacking.
  - Her poise is rather low, which is easy to exploit with a heavy weapon.
    - Her poise is so low that you can interrupt every spell she casts simply with a bow. You can use longbow with the standard arrows and kill her easily with only a couple of arrows.
