

Kiln of the First Flame

Kiln of the First Flame (一歩の炉) is a Location in Dark Souls. It is only accessible after the player has placed all four Lord Souls in the Lordvessel.

Information

The Kiln of the First Flame serves as the final stage of Dark Souls. It becomes accessible after placing the four Lord Souls (or equivalent shards) in the Lordvessel at Firelink Altar, opening the grand door leading to this ultimate arena. The path is straightforward, with minimal exploration and five Black Knights guarding the approach to the final boss, Gwyn, Lord of Cinder. Be cautious of frequent PvP invasions in this area if you remain in human form.

Area Bosses

Mandatory

- Strategies:
 1. Parry and Riposte:
 - Gwyn's attacks are predictable and can be parried with proper timing.
